

Solutions

WILL VS GOING TO - EXERCISE 2

www.ejerciciosinglesonline.com

Grammar explanation: English, Spanish

Complete the sentences using will or going to:

1. John will study / 'll study (study) English in the future.
2. Look at Paul! He is going to get / 's going to get (get) on the bus.
3. What a dark cloud! It is going to rain / 's going to rain (rain).
4. I think I will call / 'll call (call) her tomorrow.
5. I am going to travel / 'm going to travel (travel) to London next Monday.
6. The baby is going to fall / 's going to fall down (fall) down. He doesn't walk very well.
7. It's very hot here! I will open / 'll open (open) the door!
8. They are going to buy / 're going to buy (buy) a new car next month.
9. Tom will get / 'll get (get) home about ten o'clock.
10. Are you going to stay / are you going to stay (stay/you) at Paul's house very long? - Not really, just a few days.