

ANIMALS IN THE ZOO

ANIMALS IN THE ZOO

EXERCISE

Video link:

<https://www.youtube.com/embed/5cSA31THkOk>

The zoo is a place where many different animals live. You can see lions, tigers, elephants, and many more animals there. A lion is a big cat with a _____ around its head. Elephants are the largest land animals and they have long _____ to help them eat and drink.

Giraffes have long _____ that help them reach leaves high up in the trees. Zebras have black and white _____ all over their bodies. Every animal at the zoo has something special that makes it unique.

Indicate if the following statements are true or false:

1. A lion has a trunk.
2. Elephants use their trunks to eat and drink.
3. Giraffes have short necks.
4. Zebras have black and white stripes.

Select the correct answer for each question:

1. A lion has a _____ around its head.

ANIMALS IN THE ZOO

a) mane

b) trunk

c) tail

2. Elephants have long _____.

a) manes

b) horns

c) trunks

3. Giraffes have long _____.

a) necks

b) legs

c) tails

4. Zebras have black and white _____.

a) spots

b) stripes

c) wings

Complete the sentences with the correct verb form:

1. The lion _____ loudly.

a) roar

b) roars

ANIMALS IN THE ZOO

c) is roaring

2. Elephants _____ grass right now.

a) ate

b) are eating

c) eat

3. Last week, we _____ the zoo.

a) visit

b) visited

c) visiting

4. The giraffe _____ for the leaves.

a) reach

b) is reaching

c) reached

5. Zebras _____ in Africa for many years.

a) live

b) have lived

c) lived